

ENDPOINT SECURITY

Soteria Cloud Advanced Security + EDR

Endpoint protection and detection connected to recovery, not isolated from it.

For teams that need modern malware protection, behavioral detection, and response capability without adding another disconnected console.

Executive issue: Security incidents become business incidents when detection, containment, and recovery are not connected.

- 01 Detect and respond to endpoint threats faster
- 02 Reduce ransomware impact through protection and recovery alignment
- 03 Give customers a clearer security service story
